

CSE2321-Fall 2026

Greg Ryslik

Exam 1 - knowledge topics

1. Know how to create a truth table for several boolean variables and their potential interactions (and, or, not, etc).
2. Know how to translate english sentences into predicate logic with appropriate quantifiers.
3. A proof direct proofs, proofs by contradiction and proofs by contrapositive.
4. Understand what a power set is and how to build one.
5. Be able to prove things about natural, rational, and real numbers.
6. Know how to work with unions, intersections and differences of sets .
Know how to prove two sets are equal to each other.
7. Know what a bijective function is and how to prove something is a bijective function.